BAND STORY

Having just won the MusicOZ Award for Best Classical/Jazz in 2008, Fiona Joy Hawkins made her debut at #1 on the New Age Reporter Top 100 Radio Charts November 2005 and was voted Best Piano Album in the NAR Lifestyle Music Awards 2006. Also a Finalist in the MusicOz Awards 2006 and 2007, and a Finalist in the LA Music Awards in two categories in 2007.

Fiona Joy Hawkins' piano albums have been described as music to dream to. Featuring piano with orchestration, Portrait of a Waterfall calms the mind and yet allows its listener to become lost in the beauty of romantic melodies.

Angel Above my Piano takes you to places you only dream of.

ICE – Piano Slightly Chilled is an exciting mix of piano and rhythm, it is instrumental chill that is sensual with some vocal tracks and covers chill, jazz, world and rock –with a taste of the unusual thrown into the mix!

Blue Dream - World fusion Piano: "BLUE DREAM began as the most ambitious project of my entire career and resulted in one of the most remarkable collaborations this genre has ever known." Will Ackerman (Founder Windham Hill Records). Featuring guest performance by Luka Bloom. Recorded as a 70 minute single peice of music on a Steinway B, Blue Dream goes from quiet contemplative piano to full orchestral, to world sounds, rhythms, jazz influences and back again to the perfect "Bach' moment - all in a breath.

Classically trained as a pianist, Fiona's music is thematic and melodic. With a music is thematic and melodic. With a keen eye on film she has always been interested in creating music that evokes images and emotions and tells a story. "The idea of synchronicity has always intrigued me, colours, ideas and emotions all have corresponding sounds". Also a painter, Fiona incorporates original manuscripts of her music on the canvas to create bold colourful mixed media abstracts so you can hear and see her music.
